POWER TRIP: Introducing the Foundation's Power of One Hundred

OH, WHAT 100 WOMEN CAN DO!

This year the Alpha Phi Foundation asked nearly 800 past donors to join the Power of 100, a pioneering group of women giving at a high level. Just like the men. We wanted 100 women to give $1,000 ... one to give $10,000, three to give $5,000 and five, $2,500.

One hundred women (and two men) responded at these levels: one gave $10,000, seven gave $5,000, seven gave $2,500, seven gave $1,872 and 80 gave $1,000 – twice the number and amount of gifts from the year before!

Why did these women support the Foundation with these major gifts? Linda Schnetzer (BO-Bowling Green State) says, "Historically men support their fraternities with dollars and women support with time. Frankly, this is because the men had jobs, and the women had time. Now as a working woman, I feel it's important to show my support to Alpha Phi with my dollars. I hope more and more women will agree."

Thank you, Power of 100 members...

NEW WAYS TO GIVE

It's Thursday evening when you receive the call. Your Alpha Phi sister and best friend just had her baby. You want to stop at the hospital on your way to work Friday, but you're caught without a gift . . .

You've always been able to honor the special people in your life with a gift to the Foundation. By sending your donation directly to the Foundation in memory of a special person or in honor of a new arrival or good friend, you're assured of a tax-deductible contribution, proper notification to the person you indicate, and a special card sent to the honoree. Your name and her name appear in the Foundation's Annual Report of Donors.

The Foundation still offers this option, but a new way also is available.

Now you can send cards at your convenience. Simply make a donation to the Foundation specified for "Remembrance." For $75 you'll receive a pack of five newly-designed cards: your choice of memorials, new arrivals or general honor. You can request all the same cards or a combination.

Keep these on hand and when a special occasion turns up, simply mail a card to the recipient. She'll know your gift benefited the Foundation.

We'll still acknowledge your gift in our Annual Report of Donors if you send in the detachable postcard enclosed with each card.

Honor someone you love. Send congratulations. Remember a lost friend. It's never been easier to send a meaningful gift.

To view the cards in detail, check www.alphaphi.org. For more details call 847.475.4532.

TAX REFUNDS: HOW WILL YOU SPEND YOURS?

The refund checks are in the mail. What will you do with your extra cash?

Get more for your money by giving your refund as a gift to the Alpha Phi Foundation.

It's like getting two refunds in one! Donations are tax-deductible as allowed by law, and you help support the Foundation's mission.

Congratulations, Class of 2001. Alpha Phi Foundation is Proud of You!

Parents of the following Alpha Phis honored their daughters' graduations with a gift to the Foundation.

How to Honor the Class of 2002

Parents of 2002 graduates receive a letter from the Foundation in the spring. They return a completed reply form to the Foundation.

In return, the Foundation staff sends a card to each honoree at graduation time, lists their names in the fall issue of the Quarterly and guarantees your contribution will be used wisely and faithfully.

Others wishing to honor a 2002 graduate can send a note with the graduate's name and chapter to the Foundation (1930 Sherman Ave., Evanston, IL 60201) or use the giving form on the Alpha Phi Web site: www.alphaphi.org. Click on "Foundation Information" and then "Voluntary Contributions."

Checks (minimum of $50) should be made payable to the Alpha Phi Foundation. Credit cards also are accepted. All contributions are tax-deductible in the United States as allowed by law.

Love and Honor: Wedding Favors Guests Cherish

A donation to the Foundation makes a meaningful wedding favor, Kim Lewis-Tipton (ΔA-East Carolina) found. The Foundation provided special cards for the reception, informing each guest of the donation.

Consider a donation card at your wedding. It couldn't be easier. Or more heartfelt. Want to know more? Call the Foundation at 847.475.4532.

Dear Alpha Phi Foundation,

The cards you sent for my wedding were beautiful. It was so nice that each guest had a token of the donation we made to the Foundation.

My wedding day was truly the most wonderful day of my life. Julie Smith Givens (Σ-Washington and ΔA-East Carolina), my best friend and "big sister," was my matron of honor.

Two other East Carolina (ΔA) sisters, Laura Ruge and Andrea Gillispie, also stood by me. Seven sisters traveled from as far away as North Carolina to celebrate this amazing day.

The honor cards were a wonderful way for me to share with everyone my allegiance to Alpha Phi and to give back to the organization that has given me so much.

Loyally,

Kim Lewis-Tipton (ΔA-East Carolina)*

Darcel Atwill Weller Scholarship

Dear Alpha Phi Foundation,

Once again my sisters show their support and care for me. The Foundation scholarship is not made up of money given by strangers whom I might never meet, but rather gifts from sisters. I know many of these women; I've worked with them since becoming an Alpha Phi. Now I hope to continue to commit time, talent and financial resources to Alpha Phi to help other women achieve their dreams.

My heartfelt thanks and appreciation to the volunteers, staff members and donors of the Alpha Phi Foundation.

Sincerely,

Lisa Marlene Sawyer (H^--Boston)
2000 graduate scholarship recipient

How does it work?

The Foundation receives donor gifts – some designated for specific scholarship funds, some unrestricted – and awards grants earmarked for both undergraduate and graduate study. All Alpha Phi Foundation scholarships are based on merit, not need.

Who decides?

The Foundation scholarship committee reads the hundreds of applications received and evaluates them primarily on scholastic achievement, plus campus involvement, community/Alpha Phi service and essay answers. One alumna recommendation is required. The Foundation Board of Directors approves the final recipients.

How can I apply for a scholarship?

The Foundation sends applications to all collegiate chapters in early fall. Ask your director of scholarship for a copy, or call the Foundation at 847.475.4532 to request one. You also can download and print a copy from our Web site at www.alphaphi.org/scholarships.html. Click on “Foundation Information” and then “Scholarships.”

Be sure to complete all sections, ask an Alpha Phi alumna to recommend you, complete the requested essays and send in a transcript (allow extra time for your school to process your transcript request.) Graduate students fill out an extra portion of the application.

Mail your application to the Foundation office by March 15, 2002; late applications are not accepted.

What are ways to make my application stand out?

Check your application for spelling and grammatical errors. The committee reads hundreds of applications – make it easy for them. (They like a little humor, too.)

Excel scholastically. Your good grades show you are dedicated in the classroom.

Tell the committee about your campus and Alpha Phi activities. Extracurricular activities and involvement in Alpha Phi are important. Explain how you are involved in community activities and/or service. Maybe you helped with a Foundation fundraiser. Maybe you volunteer in your community. Take pride in your service.

Good Luck!

Dear Alpha Phi Foundation,

The Foundation scholarship I received combines two aspects of my life: my school education and my education in Alpha Phi. My university is responsible for sharpening my mind, and Alpha Phi is largely influential in shaping my spirit. It's nice to know that others believe in your future. It's even nicer when those people are your sisters. Winning this Foundation scholarship reminds me that I am an Alpha Phi for life.

Loyally,

*Dearna K. Midtaune (IΓ-University of the Pacific)
2000-2001 undergraduate scholarship recipient and 2001-2002 graduate recipient*
