The CLS chapter's 44 dues-paying members began the year with a successful kick-off event at a local restaurant. They continued their support of the community with the 4th annual Halloween party at Children's Memorial Hospital. Members also sponsored a holiday book wrapping at a local bookstore in exchange for donations to be given to the Alpha Phi Foundation.

The chapter recognizes members' accomplishments by giving out two awards each year. Belia Gonzalez (EΩΛ-Texas A&M) was recognized with the Silver Service Award for her tireless efforts, creativity and dedicated service as a member of the CLS Executive Board. New Co-Vice President of Programming Janeen Moore (EB-Butler) received the Phenomenal Phi Award for her spirit and commitment to CLS.

Chicago Lake Shore, Ill.

Chicago Lake Shore (CLS) alumnae and four other Chicagoland alumnae chapters (Northwest Suburban, DuPage Valley, Western Villages and Rockford) sponsored this year's Founders' Day event, a boat cruise luncheon. CLS President Jenifer Fox Romps (ΓN-Miami University), Sue Tinnish (B-Northwestern) and Cindy Meyers Plate (Γ-DePauw) organized the festivities. Alumnae from the five groups as well as local alumnae and collegians were invited. It was a great opportunity to exchange ideas about alumnae chapters, meet new sisters and celebrate Alpha Phi.

Northeast Region

Greater Hartford, Conn.

Greater Hartford alumnae met at the home of Jo Anne Bena Pierce (Π-North Dakota) in October to celebrate Founders' Day. Members purchased gift wrap to benefit Panhellenic Association of Greater Hartford. A 50-year pin was presented to Lu Pinner (BX-Bucknell). A $100 donation was given to the Alpha Phi Foundation in honor of Marion Young Frank (H-Boston) for her outstanding contribution to the chapter since 1953 and her work for Panhellenic.

The chapter went on a tour of Eastern Sports Network TV, led by ESPN employee and chapter member Meg Celmer Murphy (BO-Bowling Green State).

The year ended with a potluck dinner at the home of Mary Elva Congleton Erf (BK-Denison).

Happy hours were held on the first Thursday of each month, either in Boston proper or the suburbs to accommodate the members' various geographic locations. Other social activities included a duck tour of downtown Boston and a financial planning seminar. The hot Boston housing market prompted the chapter to hold a first-time homebuyer seminar. Great tips were offered to those who attended.

In August, members hosted another successful open house to recruit new members and get in touch with former members. Those in the Boston area are invited to join.

Support Our Legacy

Once upon a time.

Ten women talked and laughed on a college campus.

Ten women among a hundred men.

Ten women who were forward thinking, who bought a house, wrote by-laws, set dues, invited members, created ceremonies, supported each other, and began a network across the world.

Today, the legacy continues.

Your continued support allows Alpha Phi to address the changing needs of collegiate and alumnae members. To pay your annual International alumnae dues and Founders' Day pennies, return this form with $21.28 to the address below or visit our Web site at www.alphaphi.org/dues. Jacksonville First Coast alumnae continue to focus on philanthropy projects. Under the leadership of Philanthropy Chairperson Laura Chobanian (AA) the chapter completed three projects this year.

"Hug-Me" heart-shaped pillows were made and donated to the pediatric cardiac care unit of Wolfson Children's Hospital, where they are enthusiastically welcomed. Members adopted a single mother and her children during the holidays and gave them presents, clothing and much-needed furniture. The chapter also donated 144 stuffed bears to the children and other goodies for the hard-working staff at the Early Intervention Center for Newborns and Infants in Jacksonville.

The chapter earns money for these projects through Belk's Great Benefit Sale, garage sales and donations to the chapter's account at the Nearly New Store.

Gallery Named to Honor Alumna

The Birmingham Museum of Art honored Eivor Holst Callahan (A-UC/Berkeley) and her husband, Dr. Alston Callahan, with the dedication of the Eivor and Alston Callahan Gallery of Indian and Southeast Asian Sculpture. The gallery displays the Callahans' most recent museum gift, a 12th Century Khmer sculpture.

Eivor is a long-time devoted member of the Birmingham/Tuscaloosa alumnae chapter. Her husband is founder of the Callahan Eye Foundation Hospital in Birmingham, Ala.

Spotlight on Professional Phi

Sheree Clark (AA) was featured in the Des Moines (Iowa) Business Record's "60 Seconds" profile. Sheree is principal of Sayles Graphic Design, specializing in print and visual communications and dimensional design. Her third book, Get Noticed: Self Promotion for Creative Professionals (North Light Books, $29.99; ISBN: 0891349855), was released this year.

According to the profile, her biggest career break was "cold-calling MCA Records in Los Angeles and selling a project on the spot: the cover design for Lynyrd Skynyrd's greatest hits album, one of the last 33 rpm records produced. The visibility really helped put Sayles Graphic Design on the map."

Elizabeth Davis Named to Susan G. Komen Foundation Board

The Missouri Regional Affiliate of the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation named Elizabeth Tenorio Davis (O-Missouri) to its board of directors. The international Komen Foundation hopes to eradicate breast cancer as a life-threatening disease through research, education, screening and treatment. This is Elizabeth's second term on the board and she serves as an executive officer.

Prior to graduation from Missouri School of Law in May 1998, Elizabeth held an internship with the Missouri Attorney General's Office and served as editor-in-chief of the University's Journal of Dispute Resolution, a legal publication written by students in the top quarter of their law school class.

Tricia Goeke

Tricia M. Goeke

(FN-Miami University) is senior manager in the tax practice of the Cincinnati Arthur Andersen office. Tricia joined Arthur Andersen, a business unit of Andersen Worldwide, after graduating in 1992 with a bachelor's degree in accountancy. A member of several professional and service organizations, Tricia lives in Kenwood with husband Christopher and children, Gabby and Anna.

Roxanne Westphal is Wisconsin's Ambassador to the World

Roxanne Westphal

Roxanne Marie Westphal

(HM-Marquette) is Wisconsin's 53rd Alice in Dairyland. The Alice position, a full time marketing and public relations job with the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection, allows her to travel throughout the world for a year, working as Wisconsin's "agriculture ambassador."

Before her selection as Alice, the 27-year-old was morning and noon news anchor at top-rated WEAU television station in western Wisconsin. She holds a degree in broadcast journalism.

We Knew You Could Do It

Gayle Whitesell

What started as taking classes "for fun" turned into a Ph.D. for Gayle Whitesell (E-Minnesota). The 65-year-old was the oldest woman graduate at the University of Minnesota's spring 2000 ceremony. Gayle received a doctorate in community education.

A citizen activist in Community Education (C.E.) for 30 years, she earned state and national awards in her field. She is a founding member of NAC-NCE, the National Advisory Council Network for Community Education and holds a master's degree in library science.

Gayle surveyed hundreds of Community Education directors and advisory council members as part of her dissertation, focusing on an emerging model of Community Education and the impact of citizen involvement.
